In Superior Court-Suit Against Moosup Wife Withdrawn-Social Welfare Assistant May be Given Up-Appeal Holmes Will Case-New Haven Road Promises Certain Express Stops.

Fain.
Harold Kingsley, indicted for mali-cious mischief, pleaded not guilty. Bail $1,000.

Carl Brown pleaded not guilty to felonious assault. Charge modified to common assault and plea of guilty was entered. He was sentenced to four months in the Kingston jail and to pay

John H. Lassell, indicted for immoral conduct, pleaded not guilty. Bail $1,500.

Henry R. Chappell, for running an automobile without permission of the owner, pleaded nolo. Sentence deferred for payment of costs. Bail $200. Dr. Percy A. Senior, indicted for abortion, pleaded not guilty and trial set for next Monday. Judge Rathbun appointed James Williams counsel for accused.

The order for trial of criminal accused.

Edith Stillman Bentley was granted a divorce from B. Cort Bentley, and Charles P. Crandall from Lucy P. Crandall, all of Westerly.

The question of a continuation of the social welfare department of the Westerly District Nurse association will be discussed at a meeting of the board of government to be held Friday evening, with the indications that the work will be discontinued. For the past year Miss Annette McCall of Philadelphia has been the secretary of the depart. Miss Annette McCall of Philadelphia has been the secretary of the department and has rendered faithful and efficient service and at the none too large salary of $1,000. As Westerly is not classed among the larger places of the country, or of even little Rhode Island, the opinion prevails that while the social welfare work is to be commended, Westerly is too small a field for its continuance.

Acting for E. William Holmes of New York and Clifford Holmes of Old Mystic, Attorney Herbert W. Rathbun has taken appeal from the action of Judge Elias B. Hinckley of the Stonington probate court to the superior court for New London county on the first Tuesday in October, 1914. The matter appealed from its allowance of matter appealed from is allowance of the account of James E. Lord, execu-tor of the will of Mary E. Holmes, late of Stonington, in which he showed scutor of the will of her father, Eras-us Holmes, who died in 1881. Mrs. Holmes qualified as executrix and dur-ing the 30 years prior to her death neglected to give any account of her stewardship. Brown & Perkins of Norwich are counsel for Mr. Lord.

A valuable selection of scrap books containing a compilation of the deaths and marriages, including the published obituaries and reports of weddings, have been presented the Westerly published the westerly library by Miss Anna A. Gardner, ere are 15 volumes of deaths and bituaries, six of marriages, one on ocal schools and also one of clip-sings of educational and moral matter. the collection was made by the late liss Abby W. Gardner, aunt of the lonor, who resided for years on the arm of her brother, John Gardner, in he town of Stonington. The period rom 1857 to 1910 is covered by the 23 folumes and will be a valued acquist ion, locally, to Arnold's Vital Records, hat covers these matters to the year $550. The scrap books, when properly ndexed, will add materially to the yealth of information at the West-

Sammuel J. Goldsmith, who was forn in Voluntown, Conn., 39 years go Sept. 22, 1825, the son of John and letsy Goldsmith, observed the anniersary of his birth Tuesday at the some of his sister, Mrs. Mary Louise lates, in Manton, where he is visiting, is home being at Mt. Hygies, North loster. The chief observance was a oster. The chief observance was a inner given in his honor at which amany relatives and friends were erved in Battery B, First Rhode Isl nd Light artillery, and was for sevover 30 years he was in the em loy of the American Screw company a Providence, and for a large part of hat time was foreman of Eagle mill He retired in 1886 and pur-2. He retired in 1886 and pur-hased a farm in North Foster, where

The visit of a delegation composed Frank W. Coy, Willard Bacon rancis G. Haswell and Frank Sullian to New Haven on Tuesday for a onference with officials of the New lork, New Haven and Hartford Railpad company with reference to train commodations, has received consid-ration. The visit was prompted by

Referring to our meeting yesterday his home town in the state legislature, is regard to train service between the last time during the session of festerly and Bradford:

As explained to you fully in our con-As explained to you fully in our con-ersation, the conditions are so very grious, and the necessity for curtailrotect your ideas. Handsome 60page Guide Book Free. ARRY E. BACK, Attorney-at-Law findham County Savings Bank Bldg. Danielson, Conn.

PATENTS

Yours very truly,
(Signed)
A. B., SMITH,
General Pasenger Agent.
Mr. F. W. Coy, Chairman Board of Trade Transportation Committee, Westerly, R. I.

Local Laconics John Hennon of Jewett City was in Westerly Wednesday.

Mrs. Reuben C. Main of Auburn, R. I., is visiting relatives in Westerly. Dr. and Mrs. William P. Langworthy of Watch Hill and Mr. and Mrs. George N. Burdick are attending the Worcester musical festival.

C. Curtis Ecclestone formerly a representative of North Stonington in the Connecticut legislature, now of South Lyme, was a visitor in West-erly Wednesday.

Champlin, state vs. Thomas vs. Charles Richmond, state vs. L. C. Kingsley, state vs. Dr. Percy A. Senior.

The divorce suit of Howard H. Still of Potter Hill against Evelyn Rooney Still of Moosup on the grounds of desertion was called. Mrs. Still was present to defend and as a result of her opposition the plaintiff did not stand trial and withdrew the suit. It was arranged that Still would look out the interests of a minor chill. county the first Tuesday in October.

John Lynch, an employe of James J.

Murphy in West Broad street, was taken to Providence on the $.13 train
Wednesday morning and to the Dr.

John Keefe hospital, where he was operated upon soon after arrival. Mr.

Lynch suffered from intestinal obstruction that resulted in peritonitis and has been sick several days.

Edward P. Welch of Westerly, book-

John Keefe hospital, where he was operated upon soon after arrival. Mr. Lynch suffered from intestinal obstruction that resulted in peritonitis and has been sick several days.

Edward P. Welch of Westerly, book-keeper for the Niantic Menhaden Oil and Guano company of South Lyme, Conn., and Miss Sarah Budiong, for several years a school teacher in the town of Hopkinton, are to be married this (Thursday) noon. The ceremony will be performed at the home of the sister of the prospective bride, Mrs. Mrs. J. H. Hammond is visiting her sister of the prospective bride, Mrs. George C. Crosa, in Charlestown. Rev. Clayton A. Burdick will officiate.

foung Parents Arrested, Charged with Abusing Nine Months' Old Baby - Locked Up Awaiting

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Holly, aged about 18 years, who reside with Mr. Holly's uncle, Charles Holly of Pearl street, were arrested Tuesday evening by Prosecuting Attorney Burrows and Constable James E. F. Brown on a complaint made by neighbors that they were abusing their nine months' old baby. Several times it has been said that the parents did not agree and that at these times the child would be heard to have long crying spells. Monday night the child was found by the uncle and aunt to have several bruises on its face, which The grand jury of the September term of the superior court for Washington county has returned 12 indictiments, which includes four against Thomas E. Champlin for assault with a dangerous weapon in connection with a dangerous weapon in connection with the shooting up of the Girard lumber the shooting up of the Girard lumber camp and defacing a building. The other indictments are:

We have carefully gone over the matters brought out by your committee and an very glad to advise you that we will stop No. 72 (Federal extenses) at Bradford to leave passengers; and, further, that we will stop the complained at Bradford, Wood River Junction and Shannock, these being the points to the prosecuting attorney, who made septenced to seven months. In the Providence county jail.

Angelo Custodi, accomplice of Staplins, on the same charge, was sentenced to the state reform school during minority, four Tears, or six months in Providence county jail.

Angelo Custodi, accomplice of Staplins, on the same charge, was sentenced to the state reform school during minority, four Tears, or six months in Providence county jail.

We have the developed and that at the secure and that the parents did not agree and that at the security would be heard to have long crying sand that the parents did not agree and that the parents did not agree and that the secure and that the secure and that the secure and that the security gone over the matters brought out by your commit.

No. 26 (Gilt Edge) on Saturday night the child was found by the uncle and aunt to have several bruises on its face, which was badly swollen. They complained was badly swollen. They complained the arrest. The couple were taken in charge of Constable Brown and Shannock, these being the points to the points show almost no musing the points show almost no musing the points show almost no musing find that this switcher has been dand the deal of the parents did not agree and that at the secure and that the several extent of the business of its purpose. It is purposed to leave passen

Mrs. Charles E. Newbury is able to be about after a few weeks' illness with neuritis.

Mrs. Fred Eldredge is visiting in Jamestown, R. I.

The sewing society of Phebe Packer Rathbun tent, met with Mrs. Charles Sweet Wednesday afternoon.

Christopher Morgan is home from a trip in the western part of the state.

Mrs. Carl Cutler of Fort George, British Columbia, is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Irv-ing.

ing.
Mrs. I. P. Gorton, of Mt. Vernon,
Wash., Mrs. Herbert Walker of Manchester and Edward McGuffe of Voluntown are guests of Mr. and Mrs.
J. M. Whitman.

STONINGTON

Sum of $5,000 Appropriated for Lord's Point Road-To Come Back Through

At the town meeting Tuesday evening, after considerable discussion and speeches in its favor by W. L. Maine, Andrew W. Fallon and Eugene O'Neil, it was voted to build a highway to Lord's Point. It was also voted to appropriate $6,000 for this purpose, that being the approximate cost. W. J. Lord agreed to pay the town 10 per cent. of the amount received for all lots sold in the future until the amount given by the town is paid up.

Local Mention. The freight steamer Boston is moor-ed at the steamboat wharf. This boat

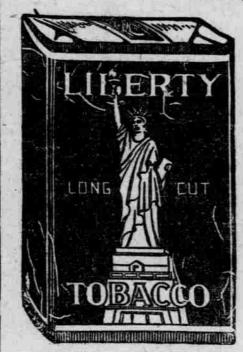

"Get Up" and Get

Don't you back up or stop until you've tried LIBERTY. It's the one perfect tobacco for the big, two-fisted, out-of-doors man who wants a rich, mellow tobacco for both chewing and smoking.

You get hold of LIBERTY. Note the honest sweetness of this pure Kentucky leaf, aged or three to five years, to bring out all its mellow fragrance and flavor. Liberty has the genuine snap and taste that you want in tobacco.

Long Cut Tobacco

PUTNAM

Defendant's Motion for Non-Suit

Granted in Johnstone Case-Plainfield Suit on Trial-Lack of Water

Becoming Serious-Congregationa

Choir Going to Worcester, Music

e case of Gordon A. Johnstone of Atlanta, Ga., vs. the Danielsonville Cotton company came to a sudden non-suit after the plaintiff had rest-years the agent of the company at Danielson and claimed that the com-pany owed him $11,000 as 5 per cent.

commission for selling the company's plant. Evidence was introduced by the plaintiff to show that he had been authorized by J. Eugene Cocomen of the Cocoran Manufacturing company that Cocoran was at one time treas-urer of the Danielsonville company.

It developed that the Cocoran family owned the stock of the Danielsonville

Cotton company and also of the Dan-felson Cotton company and the Pom-fret Power company, all of which corporations were closely allied and owned by the family, although run as distinct legal entities. That in the course of events the defendant comcago and after Mr Field's death the the company was transferred to the Field heirs and Mr. Cocoran resigned as treasurer of the Danielsonville Cotton company and it was after this resignation that he entered into nego tiations with Johnstone to sell the property, Cocoran's interest being that enough to pay the Field heirs with a balance over that balance would er or not the plaintiff was entitled to a commission for the selling of the plant at least the defendant was not liable for these commissions as at the pany and had absolutely no right or power to bind the defendant company n any way. Plaintiff in reply argued that the Plaintiff in reply argued that the company was liable on two grounds, that they at least held Cocoran out as their agent and that they ratified the contract by accepting the benefits from the sale. That there was sufficient evidence to go to the jury.

In granting the motion, Judge Tut-tle said that he had anticipated such a motion by defendant's counsel and had gone over the evidence to see if there was any testimony that would tend to bring the defendant company within the scope of legal liability and within the scope of legal liability and had failed to find any. He said that he considered that the plaintiff had acted in good faith in making the sale and that he deserved to recover from someone; but that was beyond his jurisdiction as the only question for him was whether the company was liable and he found it was not and Plainfield Auto Case on Trial.

As soon as the above case was dis-

Plaintin alleges that he was struck by an automobile owned by the de-fendant and driven by his servant, Elmer Gasgell. That Gasgell drove posed of the case of Alfred Arse-neault vs. Walter Kingsbury, an ac-therefore granted the motion

if the sale brought returns revert to the Cocoran family.

pany borrowed some quarter of a lion dollars of Marshall Field of termination in the superior Wednesday morning when Judge Tut-tle granted defendant's motion for a is purposely made up for the sturdy man who is hungry for a real man's tobacco. For many years all sorts of brands have tried to beat out LIBERTY but the old he-boy is still the kingbrand of them all.

Nothing fancy about the LIBERTY package-we put all the cost into the tobacco. As you say of a horse, "he's all horse"—so we say of LIBERTY—"it's all tobacco."

Hitch up with LIBERTY for a week's trial, and you and LIBERTY will always pull together like a well-matched team.

Sold everywhere in 5c packages.)

THE AMERICAN TOBACCO COMPANY

DANIELSON AND PUTNAM NEWS

DANIELSON

Judge Chas. O. Thompson, of Pomfret, Republican Candidate for Senator-Italian Laborer Robbed-Great Uncertainty as to License Vote-Death of Mrs. Daniel Hovey.

Harley Bowen of Fitchburg was a visitor with friends here Wednesday. Mrs. Charles T. Thayer of Putnam visited friends in Danielson Wednes-

Goes to Alleghany. John Horton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen D. Horton, has gone to Alleghany, N. Y., where he will enter a preparatory school.

William H. Putnam of Hartford was a visitor with friends in Danielson wednesday.

Charles Keach of Waterbury is spending a few days as the guest of local friends.
J. Carl Witter acted as starter for the races at Brooklyn fair, Mr. and Mrs. William Franklin have returned from a stay at their cottage at Oakland bech.

Senatorial Convention at Willimantic John M. Bessette, member of the state central committee, has called the Twenty-ninth senatorial democratic convention for next Tuesday at Willimantific. The candidates are Frank P. Fenton of Willimantic and M. E. Gallup of Pomfret. Children Attend Fair.

Killingly's school children, out for a holday Wednesday, improved the opportunity given them to attend the county fair at Brooklyn. They were present in great force and had a fine time.

Esquimau Dogs Exhibited.

Wilfred Roy of Moosup had one of the most attractive exhibits at the fair Wednesday, though not regularly entered for premiums. The exhibit included a beautiful white Esquimau dog and four pupples, as handsome little living snowballs as a child ever fond-led. The children sure made a fuss Heavy Traffic-No Accidents There was no difficulty in getting to the fair at Brooklyn Wednesday, from Danielson, the chief point of advance for hundreds who went over. Livery business automobiles were out in force. It was noted that most of the drivers were very careful-much more so than was the rule on fair days a few years back—and were rewarded by getting through the day without serious accident, though there were some close calls for bumps during the heavy traffic hours.

CANDIDATE FOR SENATOR.

Judge Charles O. Thompson, of Pomration. The visit was prompted by the proposed new schedule which is to be in effect Sept. 27, when the numer of trains are to be reduced and hange in schedule time of others. Yednesday afternoon Mr. Coy resived the following self-explanatory atter:

Haven. Conn., Sept. 22, 1914.

Judge Charles C.

Judge Charles C.

Judge Charles C.

Judge Charles C.

Probate court of Pomfret is a date for the republican nomination for senator from the Twenty-ninth district. Judge Thompson has hesitated up to this time to announce his candidacy, but under pressure of friends has decided to do so. The judge is a qualified legislator, having represented his home town in the state legislature miliar with probate court procedure, he has previously endeavored to bring about amendments to probate laws that would allow of settling estate at much less expense than is now possible and it is to bring his endeavers along this line to fruition that his friends desire to return him to Hartford, this time as a member of the incoming senate. Town Farm Well Managed.

Study of the town reports bearing son is a sister of the deceased. on the town farm accounts and in-)'rMs.tiofe?ivof quiry relative thereto establishes some facts tending to conclusively demonstrate that in Superintendent Fred Leavens the town has a valuable manager at the farm and one who is constantly striving to make the best showing possible. One of the things that the selectmen are not called upon to the selectmen are not called upon to insert in the town reports is an inventory showing certain details of increase or decrease of assets at the farm although this appears in a general way. It has been noted that when Superintendent Leavens came to the farm only 8 head of cattle were kept there, but under him this number has are not called upon to there, but under him this number has been increased to 20, counting young stock. An inventory, complete, would show a number of other figures demonstrating Mr. Leavens' fitness and the successful manner in which he hadirected affairs at the fair.

BROKE 50-YEAR RECORD. Hottest Day On Fair Grounds in Half A Century.

"I have been going to Brooklyn fair for 50 years," a Rhode Island man said here Wednesday, "but have never been on the grounds for a show when it was as hot as today." Thermometers in Danielson recorded as high as 93 degrees, and it surely was no cooler on the fair grounds One woman of advanced years who was sitting in the grand stand watch ing the races was overcome by the heat and toppled over on the person sitting beside her. The case did not sitting beside her. The case did no prove serious, however, and the woma quickly revived.

ROBBED ITALIAN LABORER. Man Employed by Westerly Company Loses Watch and Other Property.

Chief George M. Pilling was investigating Wednesday a complaint he had received from an Italian laborer who has been employed here the past few days by a Westerly concreting com-pany doing work in town. The man reported that while he was at work near the new bank building Tuesday near the new name building Tuesday afternoon a fellow workman went to his room in a boarding house on the White Row and took a gold chain and other property. The man then left coran, was not an officer of the commissions as at the time J. Eugene Cocran entered into his room in a boarding house on the property, if he ever did, he, Co-coran, was not an officer of the commissions as at the time J. Eugene Cocran entered into his room in a boarding house on the property.

Uncertainty as to License Vote. Which side the majority of the more than 150 new voters are going to take on the license question at the annual town election the first Monday in October is giving both the more tober is giving both the temperance and the license people something to think about. The new men have enough votes to keep the town in the column or to put it in the dry balance of power—on the basis the usual majorities in Killingly on the issue in question. Sizing up how a man votes on the license quesmay appear, in fact, it is not easy at all but very hard. Most of the students of the question know this, so those 150 new voters are going to be the cause of considerable speculation un-til the votes are counted on October

OBITUARY.

Mrs. Daniel A. Hovey. Mrs. Merton L. Gardner here Wed-nesday morning. The deceased, a na-tive of Plainfield, was the widow of Dr. Daniel A. Hovey, of South Killing cian in this town.

In addition to Mrs. Gardner, Mrs. Hovey leaves two other daughters, Mrs. Percy Bliven of South Killingly and Mrs. George Briggs of Volun-town. Mrs. Julia Bennett of Daniel the machine at a high rate of speed did not have it under control and that through his negligence the plaintiff was knocked down. That plaintiff's leg was broken, his collar bone broken, that he was cut about the face and head, was badly bruised and suffered internal injuries and much pain. Defendant admits the accident, that it was his car that hit the boy, that the boy was injured, but it denies the liability for the accident and disputes the extent of the injuries. The real question at issue is who is to blame. The case was still on when court adjourned for the day.

Two Divorce Cases Listed. Judge Joseph P. Tuttle will preside at a short calendar session the superior court in Putnam Friday morning at 10.30 o'clock. Two un-contested divorces are down for hear-ing, Joseph Crooks vs. Mary Crooks, a Danielson case, and Florilla C. Field vs. Walter A. Field, Putnam parties. D. Roy Smith of Boston has been he guest of his mother, Mrs. M. F. Smith, Fremont street,

Lack of Rain a Serious Drawback. The mills of Putnam are losing a large amount of time on account of low water. The season so far has been much worse than last year and unless there is some rain soon there will be scarcely any water power. Putnam people to a considerable umber attended Brooklyn fair Wed-

NO SMOKER OR DRINKER. So Daring Steeple Tom Fitzpatrick Has a Clear and Steady Head.

Steeple Tom Fitzpatrick, of Boston, has finished painting the Congrega-tional church spire the first coat. A second coat of a duller brown is to be put on. The steeple is 115 feet high and many watch the daring steeplejack as he swings about in his boatswain's chair high above their heads and wonder how he does it. Tom neither smokes nor drinks and feels as safe in the air as on the ground. He began as a boy climbing to high places outdaring his companions and now has a record of hav-ing painted steeples, and fiag poles all over the country with a book full f newspaper clippings telling of some Lawyer M. H. Geissler and Byron D. Bugbee have been appointed com-missioners by the court of probate on the insolvent estate of A. C. Luke

On Shriners' Pilgrimage George P. Miner, Edward H. Burt and George E. Brousseau left Wed-nesday evening for Hartford, where they will join Sphinx temple shrin-ers on their pilgrimage to Atlantic City. The members leave Hartford City. The members reasoning and at 8 o'clock Thursday morning and return Sunday. Fifteen thousand members are expected at the ren-

William E. Davison, superintendent of the Putnam Woolen company, is having his vacation. He is attending the Uxbridge fair and will later take in some of the baseball games in Witness in Pleasant View Case. Silas M. Wheelock, agent of the Putnam Woolen company, was at Kingston, R. I., recently as a witness kingston, R. I., recently as a witness in the case of men arrested for breaking into summer cottages at Pleasant View. Mr. Wheelock's cottage was one of those broken into. Miss Alice Morse is in Wollaston, Mass., for a week, the guest of her sister, Mrs. Mells W. Partridge.

H. H. Spooner, gecretary of the Connecticut Temperance Union, will speak at the Congregational church next Sunday morning. neault vs. Watter Kingsonly, an ac-tion claiming $5,000 for injuries re-ceived by being run into by an auto-mobile at the town of Plainfield, Sep-tember 5, 1913, was begun to a jury. The parties belong in Plainfield and the plaintiff being a minor 11 years old is suing through his father as next friend. next Sunday morning.

Going to Worcester Music Festival. A number from Putnam are attending the Worcester Music festival this week. Friday evening the choir of the Congregational church will attend stock town line.

JEWETT CITY

Parting Gifts for Miss McBroome-Death of Miss Alice Eiermann-Missionary Meeting.

ce and a box of chocolates. McBroome leaves the employ of the company with the best of wishes for success from her employers and from those with whom she has been asso-

Miss Alice Elermann. The death of Miss Alice Elermann occurred Wednesday afternoon at the home of her sister, Mrs. Casper Hoppman, in Griswold. Miss Elermann had been in failing health for two years. She was the daughter of Honora O'Neil and John Elermann and was born in and John Elermann and was born in Jewett City Aug. 30, 1877. Until her health falled she was one of the employes in the A. B. Burieson & Co.'s mill. She was a general favorite among her mates. She is survived by two sisters Mrs. Caper Hopman of two sisters, Mrs. Casper Hoppman of Griswold and Mrs. Daniel Connelly of Taftville, and two brothers, George of Stamford and John of Jewett months ago. Timetable Changes,

With the new timecard that goes into effect next Sunday, there will be a few changes that will interest Jewett City. The first trolley north will be at 5.34 a. m., the first one south will be at 6.23 a. m.; thereafter the trolley schedule will be the same, with the exception of a new southbound trolley at 11.68 p. m. By this arrangement there will be no trolley put up in Central Village over night as hereto-fore. The only change in the steam fore. The only change in the steam schedule will be that the 6.55 p. m. south will leave at 6.58.

The State of Maine express, which has been running via Willimantic and Hartford, will under the new arrangement run via Jewett City northbound at 1.42 a. m. and southbound at 1.55 a. m. No stop here. This is in addi-tion to the Bar Harbor, making four big expresses through here every Entertained for Miss McBrooms. Mrs. Mary R. Blake entertained a few of her friends at her home Monday evening in honor of Miss Mabel McBroome, who is soon to leave town for New Britain. During the evening Miss McBroome was presented a handsome gold pin. Refreshments were served by the hostess. Those present included Misses Alice and Mabel McBroome Misses Bessie and Mabel McBroome Misses Bessie and Mabel McBroome Misses Bessie and Mabel Broome, Misses Bessie and Mabel Mc-Broome, Misses Bessie and May Blake, Miss Elizabeth Whiting, Miss Ila Brown, Mrs. Beatrice Smith and Mrs. Leland Raney.

Heard of South Sea Islands, The Woman's Home Missionary soof the Congregational church met at the home of Mrs. F. E. Robin-son on Tuesday afternoon, this being the first meeting since the summer vacation. The subject of the mission ary barrel was discussed and it was decided to send one to one school in Thomasville, Ga., probably early in a body, as has been the yearly Visited Jewett City.

The degree team from Court City of Putnam, F. of A., went to Jewett City Tuesday evening to work the degree on a class of five candidates in the Jewett City court. The trip was made in an autotruck, Lawyer H. C. Bradford is confined home by illness. Work on the state road on Wood-stock avenue is being pushed rapidly and before cold weather a macadam road will be available from the bus-iness section of the city to the WoodTRAVELERS' DIRECTORY.

New London Line NEW YORK

STEAMERS CHESTER W. CHAPIN NEW HAMPSHIRE

Choose this route next time you go to New York. You'll have a delightfu voyage on Long Island Sound and a superb view of the wonderful skyline and waterfront of Manhattan Island. Steamer leaves New London at 13 p. m. week days, except Sundays, du New York, Pier 70, East River, 1 o'clock next morning.

NORWICH to $1.80 Meals a la Carte Tickets and staterooms from tickel agent railroad station.

NEW ENGLAND STEAMSHIP CO

STEAMER CHELSEA To New York

FARE $1.00 All Outside Rooms
Excellent Dining Service
Leaves Norwich Tuesdays,
Thursdays and Sundays at 5.15 m. Leaves New York Mondays, Vednesdays and Fridays at 5

Express service at freight rates. Tel 117 F. V. Knouse, Ayent

THAT IS THE VERDICT of our patrons, who have tried our Feedstuffs. They are always reliable, and give uniform satisfaction.

Our stock of Feed is full and complete, and our prices are, as you know, as low as really first-class Feed can be sold for.

CHAS. SLOSBERG

3 Cove Street

October. An interesting programme on the South Sea Islands had been ar-ranged by the committee, Mrs. G. W. Robinson and Mrs. F. E. Robinson. A Miss Maber McBroome closed her term of employment with A. B. Burieson & Co. Wednesday evening, when her roommates gave her a $2.50 gold part of this was story entitled Kwuli, interesting programme on the South Sea Islands had been arrown and Mrs. F. E. Robinson. A part of this was story entitled Kwuli, interesting programme on the South Sea Islands had been arrown and Mrs. F. E. Robinson. A part of this was story entitled Kwuli, interesting programme on the South Sea Islands had been arrown and Mrs. F. E. Robinson. A part of this was story entitled Kwuli, interesting programme on the South Sea Islands had been arrown and Mrs. F. E. Robinson. A part of this was story entitled Kwuli, interesting programme on the South Sea Islands had been arrown and Mrs. F. E. Robinson. A part of this was story entitled Kwuli, interesting programme on the South Sea Islands had been arrown and Mrs. F. E. Robinson. A part of this was story entitled Kwuli, interesting programme on the South Sea Islands had been arrown and Mrs. F. E. Robinson. A part of this was story entitled Kwuli, interesting programme on the South Sea Islands had been arrown and Mrs. F. E. Robinson. A part of this was story entitled Kwuli, interesting programme on the south and th Theodora Crosby Bliss, also a pretty history of the girls' boarding school at Kusale, written by Miss Jennie Olin. At the close of the programme delicious refreshments were served by the hostess. The programme commit-tee for the next meeting are Mrs. Hannah M. Brown and Mrs. Ida B.

> Personal Briefs. Dr. S. H. Holmes has been ill for several days, the result of a severe

Miss Watie Stetson returned Sunday night from a visit in Springfield. Mrs. A. M. Brown was in Stonington Wednesday, where she gave an address at the Sunday school insti-

PLAINFIELD

Shut-Ins Remembered - Wedding -Who Has $16,000 to Throw Away?

Mrs. William K. Pryer of the flower committee of the Christian Endeavor society remembered the shut-ins of the village with bouquets from the church Sunday evening. The flowers were dahlias, and very beautiful. Many here have unusually fine dahlias this Married at St. John's Church. Samuel Luszezyk and Miss Tessie Kaczan were married Monday morning by Rev. William A. Keefe, pastor of St. John's Catholic church. The bridesmald was Miss Catherine Kagan. James Kaczan was best man. In the evening there was a reception at the home of th bride's parents and the family and a few friends spent a very pleasant evening with music and dancing. After a honeymoon trip to New York, the couple will reside in Plain-field.

Wells Dry. Some of the wells are dry and others are so low the water is not the Little Henry Devolve picked a twin summer squash-two perfect squashes joined together.

Local people are ashamed to hear that Plainfield has a man with so much hayseed in his hair as to need a $16,000 lesson, but then boughten wit is best. A few years ago several men hought wit at a circus near the men bought wit at a circus near the bake shop at the tune of from $5 to $15 a lesson, trying to beat the shell game, but all supposed that any man who had $16,000 knew more than to be

COLCHESTER

Because of the Jewish New Year, all the Jewish places of business were closed Monday and Tuesday until sun-

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Baker were guests of their sons in New Britain Sunday and Monday. Charles T. Wilson of Worcester was a Colchester caller Monday.

At the regular meeting of Colchester grange held in the hall on Norwich avenue the committees reported on coming fair.

Hanry Wickwire has returned to Highry Wickwire has returned to Yantic after spending Sunday with his mother on Hayward avenue. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hefflon and children of East Haddam were guests over Sunday of Mrs. Hefflon's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Roper, on Amston ave-Miss Helen Webster of Wethersfield has arrived at her grandparents', Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Palmer's, where she will spend the winter.